Steve Clarke : 100 Things Blue Jays Fans Should Know Do Before They Die (100 Things...Fans Should Know) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 100 Things Blue Jays Fans Should Know Do Before They Die (100 Things...Fans Should Know):

Sometimes, "100 Things...Blue Jays Fans..." feels like teenage boys pontificating on sports in the school cafeteria. At those times, it's lively, but veers into name-calling, gratuitous profanity and inaccuracy. Other times, it feels like a press release. At those times, it's a little dull. Most of the time, it informs in an interesting way. Two of my favorite chapters were the one on three of the Blue Jay bird dogs and the one on John McDonald's home run. Old and new Blue Jay fans can enjoy it. Base hit.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Any Blue Jays fan will love...By CustomerPerfect Gift for any Toronto Blue Jays baseball fan. Bought this as a gift for my 12 year old son and he loves all the cool facts and information

Whether a die-hard booster from the days of John Mayberry or a new supporter of Jose Bautista, these are the 100 things every Toronto Blue Jay fan needs to know, and do, in their lifetime. Author Steve Clarke has collected every essential piece of Blue Jays knowledge and trivia, as well as must-do activities, and ranks them all, providing an entertaining and easy-to-follow checklist as readers progress on their way to fan superstardom. Most Blue Jays fans have taken in a game or two at Rogers Centre, have seen highlights of a young Dave Stieb, and remember where they were when Joe Carter hit his World Serieswinning home run in 1993. But only real fans know who spent two decades as the teams BJ Birdy mascot, can name the opposing player who was once jailed for hitting a seagull with a thrown baseball at Exhibition Stadium, or how long it takes to open the Rogers Centre roof. 100 Things Blue Jays Fans Should Know Do Before They Die stands as the ultimate resource for true fans of Canadas sole major league baseball team.
