Great ItemBy John SattaurAny die-hard fan of the Oakland Raiders would love to have this collection of stories, events, players and games in this book.

Professional sports has never seen another franchise quite like the Oakland Raiders, a one-a-kind creation of its late famous and infamous coach, general manager, owner, and footballs original rebel Al Davis. Never content to follow the pack, Davis put together teams steeped in bad attitude and good talent, squads equally adept at misbehaving, delivering punishment, and winning games. This all-new book explores what every true fan should know about the Raiders and what they should do to celebrate their favorite team. The listings are ranked in importance from one to 100 and include everything from the story of Jim Lazarus Plunkett and the infamous Tuck Rule game to a profile of Rickys Sport Theater Grill, what just may be the best bar in the world to watch a Raiders game. Packed with personalities, places, events, and facts, 100 Things Raiders Fans Should Know Do Before They Die is the perfect tool for any fan to take their love for the Silver and Black to a whole new level.
