This text represents the foundational vocal literature for developing "Bel Canto" technique. Many college level vocal programs begin with general literature, drawing from multiple languages for beginning and intermediate classes. Where I studied, these classes lead to a series of diction classes which are geared toward vocal majors training for professional careers in voice. That series begins with Italian, progressing through German, French and English. Historically 24 Italian Song and Arias is the standard Italian text, where this title is an updated version, containing 4 additional songs and bundled with the CDs containing recordings of accompaniment and pronunciation lessons from a native speaker. This is exactly what you need to begin developing your "beautiful singing" technique. Personally I can live without the majority of the Italian vocal literature; they seem to be mostly comprised of melodramatic love songs. However, the Italian vowels, the beautiful sounds, that you will develop through singing this literature are vital to developing your voice and carrying those beautiful sounds into the other languages you will later sing. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Love the Hal Leonard accompaniment. By Captain Caffeine I was told this is one of those standard books that every singer should own, and it doesn't disappoint. The website is awesome - it includes a player so you can speed up or slow down the accompaniment as you learn to sing, includes Italian pronunciation, and you can download the accompaniment for offline use (the variable speed player is not included, I don't think?). I ordered two books in different keys for more variety in my singing. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Selection is good. Some times Key for Medium high is almost ... By MM Come with CD recording of piano accompaniment and reading. Lyric come with for English translation, word by word English translation, pronunciation key. Selection is good. Some times Key for Medium high is almost Soprano. Key for Medium Low is Contralto. I think Key for Medium high to be Mezzo soprano and no higher than key used by Cecilia Bartoli.

(Vocal Collection). Most voice teachers and singers still prefer the pianistic, wonderfully gratifying arrangements of this early Italian material made by Alessandro Parisotti in the 1880s. This new edition, newly researched and engraved, includes the original Schirmer "24" plus four additional songs: Sento nel core (A. Scarlatti), O leggiadri occhi belli (anonymous), Intorno all'idol mio (Cesti), Delizie contente, che l'alma beate (Cavalli). With IPA, word for word translations, and historical information on each song and composer. The recording includes piano accompaniments and pronunciation lessons and is available online for streaming or download.
