Using data collected over 7,500 actual dice rolls at casinos, this invaluable book on testing craps systems is a must for serious players. Using data collected over decades specifically, on 7,500 actual rolls at casinos this book is a must to help crapshooters test their systems painlessly and risk-free, away from the tables. It answers the question, Is there a system or combination of systems I could use to beat the casino at craps? with a resounding yes. Players learn the best way to test their bets and systems for numbers, hardways, line bets, streaks, and the actual random occurrences that happen during real dice games. Organized in columns and with an easy-to-use chart for systems players to mark their notes, Midgley's work is an absolute must for serious craps players.

About the Author Thomas Midgley began playing dice at age five, which began a lifelong fascination with the game. Midgley used his 60 years experience as a player, mathematician and craps systems researcher, plus 7,500 rolls of the dice under actual game conditions, to create this important work.
