Francois Schubert, Paul M Fleury : 9 Etudes, Op. 3 for Solo Violin (French Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 9 Etudes, Op. 3 for Solo Violin (French Edition):

Nicely cleaned up plate from Paris published by Richault around 1875, this is the authoriative edition by the Dresden violinist and composer most well known for the Bee for violin. Nine great etudes for violin, for upper intermediate to expert players, has 24pps. Edition Fleury, extra pages in back of staff paper and notes for whatever you feel like putting in there. 8.5"x11", Glossy cover, printed on #60 paper. Excellent addition to any violinist's library, and first time in publication for over 100 years.
