Michael H. Dickman : Acrostica IV: Acrostic Puzzles Volume Four (Volume 4) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Acrostica IV: Acrostic Puzzles Volume Four (Volume 4):

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Not your usual AcrosticsBy AdelieI'm working my way through these books and plan to buy them all, as I complete each one. The clues can be maddeningly obtuse, demanding arcane knowledge that has be frequently frustrated. And the quotes, while interesting, aren't your usual quips and anecdotes; the author has selected passages from a huge variety of works, some scientific, philosophical, historical, biographical, and fiction.It's very hard to find Acrostics, and I'm glad I found this series. I learn something from each one I complete.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. ... day for over forty years and this author is excellent. The puzzles are hard enough to make you ...By Sandra J. HerrI have solved an acrostic puzzle a day for over forty years and this author is excellent. The puzzles are hard enough to make you really think and brush the cobwebs from your brain but very solvable. Many other books overlap in their solutions but in this book every puzzle is unique. I bought the entire series and am very pleased0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Love these booksBy Richard CaronLove these books. After working my way through Volume 1, I bought the rest of the series. For me, the puzzles are just easy enough to be doable without looking things up; but hard enough to keep them interesting. I will say that if you find the Middleton-Cox-Rathvon line easy, you may find these boring. Short of that, I highly recommend the Dickman books. I hope he keeps putting these out.

Fifty challenging acrostic word puzzles in volume four of the Acrostica collection. Thought-provoking quotes with clues ranging from the classics to pop culture. Everything comes together in these acclaimed confections for the mind.

About the AuthorAuthor Interview -- Catching up with Michael H. Dickman in his icebound igloo during the 2015 Snowmageddon wasn't easy. I asked him if the rumors were true that he is a team of puzzle writers working around the clock to bring you the finest in acrostic puzzles. "Not at all," he said, "and normally I don't refer to myself in the third person, either." When asked if another volume of Acrostica might be published, he said "Yes, but it could take a while. I'm also working on several other projects." No word yet on what those might be.
