work. Some of the tempi markings and editorial decisions are unclear, but I suppose we'll have to wait for the Barenreiter C.E. for more answers! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Cheaper than new By J. M. Pye Accurate and notations by previous owner are in pencil. Good value for choir member. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. excellent love this collection By Andrew Wickenheiser this is one of my favorite oratorios. Would suggest to any fan of Handel. look forward to learning it in its entirety

(Music Sales America). Alexander's Feast was composed by Handel in 1736. The words, in celebration of St Cecilia, patron saint of music, were written by Dryden and first set to music by Jeremiah Clarke. This ode was written for STB (or SATB) soli, SATB chorus and orchestra. This version, edited by Donald Burrows, contains all vocal parts and a piano accompaniment.
