Using a conservative style of play, I have been able to grind out wins on a regular basis, for the past decade. The use of Time Zone Hedge Parlays has been a big part of that success. What is a Time Zone Parlay? Simply put, a Time Zone Parlay is a multi-team parlay bet where each game in the parlay must end before another game in the parlay starts. This gives the sharp bettor a chance to hedge off, or bet against the play in the parlay. By doing this the bettor is accomplishing the most important aspect of gambling which is minimizing losses. The really sharp player can set up middles where the potential of winning both bets arises. This is a patient method, not some get rich quick scheme. The goal is to preserve bankroll and wait for the times we are correct cashing in on our Time Zone Parlay. You can use any sport in your Time Zone Parlays as long as the starting and end times give you enough time to hedge the next open play. When playing Time Zone Parlays you can use as little as a 2-team parlay, but the system is best suited for 3-team and 4-team parlays. The book explains in great details how to layout your plays, when and how to hedge and minimum expected returns. This is a must have book for the conservative sports bettor! This system of play accomplishes two of the most important aspect of gambling; keeping risk low and preservation of capital.
