Live well while we are aliveBy Dorothy BlakeAddresses some interesting issues about our attitudes to terminal illness and the need for medicos to be aware of human priorities when recommending medical interventions in order to provide the best quality of life, rather than prioritising longevity.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Bette FarrerIt was easy to read - a difficult subject but very objective and positive.

Trivia-on-Book: Being Mortal by Atul Gawande It is difficult to deal with a loved one who go through the changes of becoming old. It makes the process even more difficult without the support of medical doctors who understand and can treat an elderly family member. The pain of finding appropriate care for an elderly family member when you are no longer able to help is heartbreaking. In Being Mortal Dr. Atul Gawande discussed these issues as he shares stories and experiences of living with and moving forward when facing the end of life.
