People across the country are fascinated with the lifestyles of todays most famous reality TV stars. TV Housewives Reality Check satisfies this craving with commentary and puzzles about the real housewives from Orange County, New York City, New Jersey, Atlanta, Beverly Hills, Miami and D.C. But what compendium of television housewives would be complete without a nod to the moms of yesteryear? So, you can stroll down memory lane in chapters dedicated to television housewifery from the 1950s through the 2000s. The commentary preceding each chapter provides historical perspective and the cultural impact of these television icons. The commentary will also help the reader complete the crossword puzzles and other puzzles as the names of the various characters are spelled out.
