"Hello, is that Jonathan Rendall?""Speaking.""My name's Rachel Cugnoni. I'm calling from Yellow Jersey Press and I have a proposal for you. I'm looking for someone to give 12,000 to but the catch is they have to spend it all on gambling horses, the dogs, casinos, boxing, golf, soccer, that sort of thing and then write a book about it. Any profits made are entirely that person's but if they lose it all I still want my book. It's high risk but without wanting to assume too much, I've heard a bit about you and somehow I thought it may appeal. Think about it you'd have the opportunity to lay some serious bets offering serious returns, you could play hard ball in poker games for once, even go to Vegas and, as I said, those winnings are yours to blow in whatever way you wish." "When do I start?"

"Twelve Grand is a fantastic book - so few provide the reader pleasure any more. This is a book that approaches 'truth'. A great book" -- Thom Jones "A gallop to the gates of a personal hell which is breathtakingly redeemed by its originality and ability to fascinate" * Herald * "This is a clever book, with a vulnerable heart inside its tough outer shell... Absolutely cracking" * Independent * About the Author Jonathan Rendall was born in 1964. He was educated at Champion School, Athens, and Magdalen College, Oxford. His first book, This Bloody Mary Is The Last Thing I Own, won the Somerset Maugham Award. He died in 2013.
