Bathroom Readers' Institute : Uncle John's Bathroom Reader History's Lists (Uncle John's Bathroom Readers) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Uncle John's Bathroom Reader History's Lists (Uncle John's Bathroom Readers):

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. My fave! By Pam G. My son introduced me to these books a few years ago, and I have always found them entertaining besides being full of trivia, which always seems to stick in my brain somewhere. :) This one is especially interesting to me because it makes real-life historical events and activities short and sweet besides having a lot of behind-the-scenes interactions and deals that went down to make it something that would someday end up in our history books, novels, non-fiction works...everywhere! I like the lists idea because I can read one or two when I just have a few minutes or spend hours reading many pages of different historical events, a lot of which I have never heard of or read about. So far, I haven't found a single boring item in this book. A definite fun read that will leave you learning something new that day!

I am a trivia nut. I have so many of these. So interesting. I even reread them. Funny and such a variety. You will be amazed at the things you learn. I promise you will not be sorry for buying this.

Leave it to Uncle John to find a new way to make history fun and exciting! This quirky collection of lists is the latest volume in the Bathroom Readers best-selling history series. These 508 pages will breathe life into history's most famous (and most unusual) stories. From the Stone Age to the Internet Age, some quick takes on must-know topics that will reveal the surprising connections among history's greatest--and strangest--events. History buffs, trivia hounds, and readers looking for an educational snack will love this fun format. Here's what you'll find in this great book:
2 famous pioneering trails
3 one-armed men who lent a hand
4 famous folks who literally died laughing
5 horrifying medieval punishments
6 photographic firsts
7 hotel rooms where history was made
8 disgusting secret ingredients
9 famous trains
10 places you can't go
11 disasters that changed the world
12 fast food firsts
And much, much more!
