Another home runBy arenapI have been reading Uncle John's Bathroom Readers for 25 years and never get tired of them. I'd already read Plunges into New York but didn't expect to read about Texas. Then, a very good friend moved there so I bought one for him and, of course, had to buy one for me as well. He loved it and I did too. But that's no surprise since I've enjoyed so many Bathroom Readers. And I expect to continue reading them for many years.
