the bathroom anymore; they have moved into their new home on the coffee-table, where they rightly belong. Fun-filled page after page of trivia awaits you as you flip from page to page. You just can't go wrong with Uncle John.

With Uncle John's Curiously Compelling Bathroom Reader, the dedicated folks at the Bathroom Readers Institute offer fast-acting, long-lasting relief for their legions of fans who have been suffering without a new infusion of the series trademark trivia and obscure and fascinating facts. Number 18 in the series, this book is divided into short, medium, and long sections for any duration of stay. Readers can plunge into such pressing topics as the origin of Punk Rock, the true story behind all those celebrity jailbirds, whether dragons actually exist, strange diets of the rich and famous, great moments in bad TV, and more. This irresistible read, perfect for any mood, also contains a variety of puzzles and brainteasers for readers to ponder.
